P qvpi Boston College Police Department allots only one Eagle Escort vehicle to cover services to the entire Boston College campus at one time.

Hwt vj gt 'P qvpi Members of the Boston College disabled community have expressed concern surrounding Eagle Escort, specifically in terms of its inconsistent wait time due to having only one van running at a time.

Hwt vj gt 'P qvpi Outside of the Boston College disabled community, non-disabled students

Hwt vj gt 'Cempqy rgf i lpi <Boston College fulfills its mission with “a deep concern for all members of its community, with a recognition of the important contribution a diverse student body, faculty, and staff can offer.”

Vj gt ghqt g.'dg'w't guqkxf .the Undergraduate Government of Boston College calls upon the University and the Boston College Police Department to have two staffed Eagle Escort vans so that more than one van can be serving campus at one time.

T guqkxf 'Hwt vj gt .as an additional short-term solution to this issue, Eagle Escort drivers should be instructed to call the student that ordered the service once they arrive at the pick-up point on campus.

Hwwt g'I qcn'include using Eagle Escort as an on-campus job opportunity by hiring student drivers, as well as students being able to schedule their Eagle Escort service in advance as opposed to scheduling on-demand.
